On Wednesday, the majority of Year 5 and 6 went to see the amazing show 'Wicked'. Thank you to all the parents and children who made the trip a memorable day.

Four children from years 3 and 4 enjoyed competing in the Norfolk School Games mini tennis competition. The children played some fantastic tennis with exciting rallies. They were a credit to the school, showing good behaviour and sportsmanship throughout the morning.

Sports Days

Next week's sports days are on the following dates:

Reception & Year 1—
Wednesday 21st 9.30am –
11.00am approx.

Years 3&4—Thursday 22nd
9.30am—11.30am approx.

Years 5&6—Thursday 22nd
1.20pm—3.20pm approx.

You all should have been sent home a letter on Monday about the School Organisation in Great Yarmouth. Could we please ask that you respond to the consultation—preferably on-line. If you wish to use our ICT suite, or have support, come in at 9am any day next week—speak to Sharon Johnson on the gate. There is a box in reception if you prefer to respond in this way.

Can we please remind you that school uniform includes black shoes not trainers. Thank you

Gooseberry Student 'Tip' of the Week

Take and share photos safely online. Always ask permission to take someone else's photo and think carefully about what you are taking photos of. Stay selfie safe, leave out details of your location and pose sensibly! If you must share online, think before you do and share only with real life friends only.
