Thank you to all the parents who came to the Year 1 Story Café. The story was about 'The Tiger who came to Tea'. Both the children and their parents designed dinners on paper plates and made tiger food labels. Everyone had a great time!

Midday Supervisory Assistant

We are looking to employ a Midday Supervisory Assistant. If you are interested or know of anyone who would be interested, please come to the school office for an application form.
Thank you.

Letters have been sent out this week regarding parents evenings. Could the class teachers please have these back as soon as possible, to enable you to get the times you require, especially as the meetings are the first week back after the half term holiday.

Could we please ask that all the children bring suitable footwear (trainers or plimsolls) to school for their PE Lessons.
Also could the children please bring their PE kits into school on a Monday for the week ahead, so they always have them with them for all PE lessons.
